NYC 9/11 Public Portal Document

THE NEW YORK POST, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2001

What's open, what's closed

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day.

Federal, state and city offices and courts are closed.

Post offices are closed. There is no regular mail delivery, but there is Express Mail and Special Delivery.

Financial markets and banks are closed. They reopen on Friday, with the New York Stock Exchange closing early at 1 p.m.

Public schools are closed tomorrow and Friday.

Alternate-side-of-the-street parking rules are suspended. Regular rules resume Friday.

There will be no garbage collection, recycling pickup or street cleaning. Regular schedules resume Friday.

Subways and buses and the Long Island Rail Road and Metro-North will operate on holiday schedules tomorrow and Friday.

CITY_21MC100_000000216

NYC-WTC_000411701