Today Is Primary Election Day; Don't Forget to Vote

Today is primary election day, when party voters choose among candidates seeking to run in the Nov. 6 general election. If the vote was important when first scheduled two weeks ago, the need for strong new leadership — Mayor Rudolph Giuliani can't now run because of term limits — makes this even more so. We urge all people registered in a party to vote. Here are Newsday's endorsements in key city primaries:

Democrat for mayor: Alan Hevesi

Republican for mayor: Michael Bloomberg
