Subject: The Hotline is Dead; Long Live the Hotline

Dear Colleagues:

For ~~Wednesday's Task Force meeting~~, please let me know what number to call you at if you will not be attending. (So far I've heard from Rob Greene.)

The EPA's Air Quality Hotline is up and running (see press release below); as a result, the City's Lower Manhattan Air Quality Hotline closed on Friday, May 31, 2002.

The following is our last summary of calls received by our hotline operators.

We received a total of 18 calls on Thursday May 30:

- 3 were about cleaning
- 1 was a question about the environment
- 6 were requests for indoor air testing
- 6 were for the Old WTC hotline
- 2 were "other" questions

We received a total of 11 calls on Friday, May 31:

- 2 were about cleaning
- 2 were questions about the environment
- 1 was a question about health
- 2 were requests for indoor air
- 1 was for the Old WTC hotline
- 3 were "other" calls

We received 2 voicemails overnight. 1 was a request for indoor air testing and 1 was a hang-up.

Thanks, DOH, for providing these updates.
