Valentine's Day in the Heart of Downtown

If you've called Balthazar and Danube and discovered that these trendy Soho eateries are already booked for Valentine's Day, fear not. Lower Manhattan is home to many of the City's most desired dining and entertainment establishments, and there is still plenty of room.

Train Plan Rolls Out

The dream of creating a single, integrated transportation system downtown got closer to reality on Friday, when Governor George E. Pataki and Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg unveiled a multi-billion-dollar transit plan.
