Message: hello

for a presentation in university i need some information about that event from 11.sept.01 at WTC...

please could you tell me something /or show me the a website about the influence for the drinkingwater in the area of the catastrophe, and what were the solutions for that problems?

exept for presentation it is interesting for me because i m working in the german federal agency for technical relief...how other organisations solve such problems...

thanks

with kind regards

mccaspar
