RE: World Trade Center Recovery Litigation

DATE: June 6, 2002

Mark Hoffer received a telephone call from Assistant Corporation Counsel Theresa Barillas [telephone number (212) 788-0515] regarding litigation resulting from the World Trade Center response and recovery efforts.

Please provide me with the names and telephone numbers of all supervisors within your Bureau who had a material role in the response and recovery efforts.

These supervisors will need to meet with ACC Barillas in the future so that she may begin to ascertain the facts and circumstances surrounding the response and recovery efforts. Theresa is the City's lawyer in this instance, and the interviews will neither be adversarial nor depositions; this matter is at the information-gathering stage.

I may be contacted at (718) 5-5-5650 with any questions.

(718) DEP-HELP

FRANK:

1. Theresa Barillas (Torts) called. Law is preparing the City's defense in the many lawsuits already brought against the City stemming from 9/11. It will be handled by their special litigation unit.

They are informally interviewing agency staff who were involved in 9/11 and post-9/11 recovery efforts and have asked to have the following people from DEP come down

Bob Avaltroni

Rachel Stein

Alexandra Samoyitch

I bet they are referring to
Alessandra Samonowicz (MOEC)

The Directory doesn't list the last 2, but I'm assuming they work for Bob. Can you have someone call each, and ask them to call Theresa (212-788-0515) to schedule a date and time to go down and be interviewed. This is NOT a deposition; it is simply Law trying to build an information base on the City's response to 9/11.

2. As a second step, I'd also like the assigned lawyer to call Bob Avaltroni and Doug Greeley and get the names of any supervisors for those Bureaus who had a material role either in response on 9/11, or on recovery thereafter (I know Mustafa has been heavily involved for Bob). Once you get those lists, I'd like a call to be made to Theresa to give her the names, and then a call to each of the people, asking them to call Theresa to set up a date and time. Again, assure folks that this is not adversarial and not a deposition; it's information gathering.

Please advise who is handling. Thanks.
