Bob asked me to forward this request from J. Cohen for your info. Might need to get some things together Monday morning to prepare for telecommunications call?

Jane for Bob Avaltroni

Jay Cohen from NYC Law Department (212 341-3687) called a few minutes ago requesting Bob or Mike to go to North Carolina on Tuesday for a meeting on the below issue. I paged Bob and he asked me to send the request up to you. Bob's mother-in-law passed away yesterday so he will not be in but, if necessary, he supposes Mike Gilsenan could go (Mike's has a doctor's appointment today). Bob asked if you would speak to the Commissioner in his absence.

Something unclear about E.P.A.cleanup process

Well over a year after the collapse of the World Trade Center unleashed dangerous chemicals into the air and potentially dangerous amounts of dust swirled into thousands of Downtown apartments, the federal Environmental Protection Agency finally agreed to live up to its responsibilities and make sure Lower Manhattan homes were safe.

The E.P.A. had to be dragged kicking and screaming to administer this program and now after it has agreed to do so, it is doing far less than the minimum a reasonable person would expect from it.
