RE: 107th Street Pier Restoration Phase II-PDC Contract 91001.1, Borough of Manhattan
Att: Mr. U. Sultan

Gentlemen:

This is in response to your submission dated December 1, 1987.

Please be advised that this Bureau has no facilities within the limits of your project.

In addition, as the pier is within the jurisdiction of the Department of Ports & Terminals and the Department of Parks and there will be no connections to any sewer we have no comments regarding your submission.

Very truly yours,

MAGDI FARAG, P.E., CHIEF
Division of Sewer Regulations &
Control, Bureau of Sewers

Re: 107th Street Pier Restoration
Phase II
PDC Contract 41001.1

Dear Mr. Smith:

We have enclosed the Preliminary Contract Documents regarding the above mentioned project. This submission includes Preliminary Contract Plans, Specifications and Preliminary Construction Cost Estimates for your review and comments.

Since the Final Contract Documents for this project are due by the end of February 1988, we would greatly appreciate your expeditious review and written response to these Preliminary Contract Plans. If we can assist you in any way, please contact us immediately. We are available to meet you to help expedite your review.

In the event we have not received a response by January 4th, 1988, we will assume that you are in agreement with this submission.

Your timely review and cooperation will be greatly appreciated by Public Development Corporation and Cavaglieri And Sultan Architects.

Very truly yours,

Joseph Sultan
