From

Date Prepared

December 9, 1998

As per my conversation with you, Sal Liffieri and Mike Pisano of Vikonics; I informed that our final request for approval of the release of doors #'s 40A & 40B has been rejected by the P.A.. In an informal review the Port rejected our final solution for the release of this doors, and therefore we will not have a Certificate of Occupancy by your move in date, unless we submit an acceptable solution by no later than this Friday.

In my conversation with Vikonics, Mike proposed to tie in the two doors to a door release button at the receptionist desk. He was going to try to find a button that had a MEA approval for NYC as requested by the P.A.

We can not be sure that the P.A. will approve this and if we don't receive this information by today we can not set up the review appointment for Friday.

If you need any more information regarding this matter please call.
