Time shall be of the essence with respect to the giving of such notice and payment by

ARTICLE 4

TAX AND OPERATING EXPENSE ESCALATIONS

Landlord and Tenant agree that in addition to the annual base rental provided for in the preceding paragraphs of this Lease, additional rent shall be payable, consisting of Real Estate Tax Escalations or Pilot Escalations and Operating Expense Escalations as those terms are hereinafter defined. Landlord and Tenant agree Tenant's pro-rata share of Real Estate Tax Escalations, Pilot Escalations, and Operating Expense Escalations accurately reflects the ratio of Tenant's rentable square footage to the total rentable square footage in the Building.

A. 1. BASE YEAR OPERATING EXPENSES

"Base Year Operating Expenses" shall be defined as all reasonable costs and expenses (and taxes thereon), without duplication, paid or incurred by Landlord in [see A.2. 1.4, i.e. the Operating Expense Base Year,] in the reasonable exercise of Landlord's business judgment with respect to following:

I. Items included in Operating Expenses

- (1) Labor costs for the services of the following classes of employees performing services required in connection with the operation, cleaning, safety, security, repair and maintenance of the Real Property (including, without limitation, all Building equipment):
 - ~~(i)~~ (i) the Building manager who works full time on the Building.
 - (ii) engineers, mechanics, electricians, plumbers, porters and janitors engaged on a full or part-time basis in the actual operation, repair and maintenance of any part of the Real Property, including but not limited to cleaning and the heating, air conditioning, ventilating, plumbing, electrical, elevator and all systems of the Real Property, provided that in the case of such part-time employees only the costs attributable to the Real Property shall be included.

- (2) ~~(i)~~ The competitive ~~(industry standard)~~ cost of materials and supplies used in the operation, cleaning, safety, security, repair and maintenance of the Real Property including, but not limited to, painting and removal of graffiti.

(ii) The competitive ~~(industry standard)~~ cost of independent contractors performing services required for the operation, repair, cleaning, safety, security and maintenance of the Real Property including extermination services once each month.
- (3) The annual amortization (on a straight-line basis over a depreciable life in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, with interest calculated at an annual rate of two (2) percentage points above the then current Base Rate at the time of Landlord's having made such expenditure) of expenditures incurred by Landlord after the Commencement Date for any equipment, device or capital improvement which is required by law or insurance requirements or which is reasonably designed as a cost-saving measure (and the annual amortization in respect of which bears a reasonable relationship to the amount of actual savings) in the operation or maintenance of the Real Property or the Building equipment (including, without limitation, the Building electrical equipment (including, without limitation, the Building electrical transformers). The term "Base Rent Rate" as used in the Lease shall mean the rate of interest publicly announced from time to time by Citibank, N.A., or its successor, as its "base rate" (or such other term as may be used by Citibank, N.A., from time to time, for the rate presently referred to as its "base rate").
- (4) Management fees provided that said management fee shall be no higher than that which is ordinary and customary for first class office buildings in Manhattan in the real estate management industry in Manhattan.
- (5) The costs of electricity and all other utilities for the common areas of the Building, including taxes thereon.
- (6) "All Risk" fire insurance, including rent insurance.
- (7) Business Improvement District assessment ("BID").

II. Items Excluded from Operating Expenses

- (1) The cost of correcting defects in the construction of the Building or in the Building equipment, except that conditions (not occasioned by construction defects) resulting from ordinary wear and tear shall not be deemed defects for the purpose of this category;
- (2) Cost of any repair made by Landlord to remedy damage caused by or resulting from the negligence of Landlord, its agents, servants or employees;
- (3) Labor costs in respect to executives of Landlord not assigned to the Building as part of the normal Building operation staff;
- (4) Taxes, Pilot and Real Estate Taxes as defined below;
- (5) Legal, accounting or other professional fees (including without limitation, brokerage, and finder's and advertising fees incurred to attract, Lease to, or procure new tenants) other than legal (but not litigation fees) and auditing fees reasonably incurred in connection with the maintenance and operation of the Real Property or in connection with the preparation of statements required pursuant to this Article or similar lease escalation provisions in other leases for space in the Building.
- (6) Any public liability insurance premium;
- (7) Interest for late payments of water and sewer rents;
- (8) The cost of any items for which Landlord is reimbursed by insurance or which are reimbursable by insurance;
- (9) The cost of extraordinary services provided for other tenants within the premises respectively demised to such tenants;
- (10) The costs attributable to the correction or remedying of any act or omission of any tenant in the Building where such tenant is liable for the correction or remedying of any such act or omission under its lease with Landlord;
- (11) Any cost (of electricity or any other item) for which Landlord is reimbursed by any tenant of the Building;
- (12) The cost of repair or rebuilding caused by fire or other casualty or

condemnation;

- (13) The cost of any alterations to prepare space for occupancy of any tenant in the Building;
- (14) Expenses resulting from any violations by Landlord of the terms of this Lease or any other lease in the Building;
- (15) Refinancing costs and mortgage interest and amortization payments;
- (16) Any item otherwise indicated in this Lease to be performed at Landlord's sole cost and expense; and
- (17) Any item otherwise indicated in this Lease to be performed by Landlord but paid for by Tenant as additional rent or otherwise.

The intent of the parties is that Tenant shall pay its proportionate share of increases in Base Year Operating Expenses (i.e. Operating Expense Escalations) based on the Building being not less than ninety-five percent (95%) occupied. Accordingly, in determining the amount of Base Year Operating Expenses, if less than ninety-five percent (95%) of the Building rentable area shall have been occupied by tenant(s) at any time during any such Operating Expense Base Year, Base Year Operating Expenses shall be increased by an amount equal to expenses which would have been incurred in the Building under an operating clause such as this one had such occupancy been ninety-five percent (95%) throughout such Operating Expense Base Year.

Landlord shall be required to disclose and notify Tenant of any significant related party transactions the cost of which are included in the Base Year Operating Expenses. When such transactions occur prices of same must be in line with normal industry practice in New York City. Failure to notify Tenant of such related party transactions shall result in a disallowance of such costs not in lien line with normal industry practice in New York City that would otherwise be part of the Base Year Operating Expenses. If such related party transactions occurred and were disclosed but it is found by the Tenant that the cost thereof was excessive, then such charges shall be disallowed to the extent they exceed normal industry prices in New York City, Within one-hundred twenty (120) days after the expiration of the Operating Expense Base Year, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a schedule of Operating Expenses for said Operating Expense Base Year. Such schedule of Base Year Operating Expenses must be prepared in a format no less detailed than that shown in Exhibit ~~xxx~~ hereto.

Such schedule of Base Year Operating Expenses must include a statement signed by the chief executive, chief operating, or chief financial officer of Landlord that avers that there is complete and accurate documentation in Landlord's files to support each and every charge included in Base Year Operating Expenses.

Landlord must have supporting documents for each and every Base Year Operating Expense or it will be disallowed.

Such schedule of Base Year Operating Expenses must be accompanied by a report of Landlord's Certified Public Accountant, which report must be based upon an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and state whether the schedules of Base Year Operating Expenses present fairly the Base Year Operating Expenses of Landlord, as defined in the Lease.

If Landlord fails to furnish any statements under this Article relating to Base Year Operating Expenses or Operating Expense Escalations under A.2. below within 180 days after the date due, Tenant may, upon thirty (30) days' written notice, withhold all Additional Rent due and owing to Landlord for Operating Expense Escalations under A.2. below, until Landlord furnishes the foregoing statements. Tenant's liability for Operating Expense Escalations due pursuant to this Article and/or Landlord's liability for refunding any overpayment shall survive the expiration of the Term hereof.

Pending any audit by the Tenant or Comptroller of ~~Operating Expense Escalations for any calendar and/or fiscal year, including the Operating Expense Base Year~~, Tenant shall pay Operating Expense Escalations pursuant to the foregoing provisions hereof for such year as billed by Landlord, provided, however, that Tenant shall have the right to withhold a disputed amount on account of Operating Expense Escalations until the dispute in question is resolved; and upon completion of such audit Tenant shall be allowed to deduct immediately overcharges detected upon audit from any installment of rent then becoming due, or if at the end of the Lease term Tenant shall be entitled to a payment from Landlord for such amounts within thirty (30) days of Lease termination or expiration, ~~except that if Landlord shall dispute the correctness of Tenant's audit, the dispute shall be resolved by arbitration, in the manner provided by the rules and before the American Arbitration Association (or any successor organization) in New York County, with a panel of three arbitrators and judgment on any award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. Pending such determination, Tenant shall not be allowed to make any deductions from rent.~~

Tenant shall have the right to copy, examine and audit Landlord's Base Year Operating Statement.

A.2 LANDLORD'S STATEMENT OF OPERATING EXPENSE ESCALATIONS

Consumer Price Index Adjustments

1. Definitions

1.1 “Price Index” shall mean “The Consumer Price Index for U.S. City Average-All Urban Consumers (1982-84 equals 100), issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor.

1.2 “Base Price Index” shall mean the Price Index for the month of January, 1998.

1.3 “Lease Year” shall mean each period of twelve (12) consecutive months, beginning on the first day of January of each calendar year, during the Term of this Lease.

1.4 “Operating Expenses Base Year” shall mean the calendar year 1998.

2. “Operating Expense Escalation” shall mean a sum payable by Tenant to Landlord each Lease Year computed by multiplying the sum representing the Base Year Operating Expenses as defined under Subsection A. 1 of this Article 4 by the percentage, if any, by which the average Price Index, as published for the month following the last month of the Lease Year in question, shall exceed the Base Price Index. Such sum shall be multiplied by 2.37 % which represents Tenant pro rata share of Operating Expenses for the Building. (See example for calculating CPI Index changes below.)

3. Such Operating Expense Escalation for every Lease Year which follows the Operating Expense Base Year shall be billed and paid as follows:

(a) Within five weeks after the beginning of any such Lease Year, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement (hereinafter the “Estimate”) showing the estimated amount of such Operating Expense Escalation payable for the then current Lease Year, which estimated amount shall be calculated by using the previous Lease Year’s CPI factor according to 2. above. Tenant shall pay Landlord the same sum, in equal monthly installments (such monthly installment hereinafter referred to as the "Amount") in arrears on the last day of each and every month during such Lease Year. Such Estimate shall be on account of the Operating Expense Escalation accruing under this Subsection A.2, subparagraph 3 (b), below for the then current Lease Year.

(b) Within five (5) weeks after the end of the Lease Year, in which such Amounts were payable under Subparagraph 3 (a) above, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement of the Operating Expense Escalation payable by Tenant for such Lease Year, computed in accordance with 2. above. Such statement shall indicate the balance payable by Tenant after crediting Tenant with the aggregate of the monthly Amount payments made under Subparagraph 3. (a) above for such Lease Year. The amount of such balance shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within 45 days after delivery of such statement. If there is an overpayment by Tenant Landlord shall refund the overpayment to Tenant within 45 days after delivery of the aforesaid statement.

4. Landlord shall not be obliged to make any adjustments or recomputations, retroactive or otherwise, by reason of any revision which may later be made in the figure of the Price Index first published for any month. The Price Index published for any Lease Year shall, for the purpose of this Subsection A.2., be deemed no lower than the Base Price Index.

5. If the Price index ceases to use the 1982-84 average equaling 100 as the basis of calculation, then the Price Index shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect the change in the Price Index from that in effect at the date of this Lease. If such Price Index shall no longer be published by said Bureau, then any substitute or successor index published by said Bureau or other governmental agency of the United States, and similarly adjusted as aforesaid, shall be used. If such Price Index (or a successor or substitute index similarly adjusted) is not available, a reliable governmental or other reputable publication selected by Landlord and Tenant jointly and evaluating the information theretofore used in determining the Price Index shall be used.

6. If any part of a year of the term of this Lease shall include any part of a Lease Year, Tenant's liability under this Subsection A.2. shall be apportioned so that Tenant shall pay only such part of the sums required to be paid under this Subsection A.2. that shall be included in the term of this Lease.

B. REAL ESTATE TAX ESCALATIONS

The term "Taxes" and "Real Estate Taxes" as used herein, shall mean the real estate taxes and assessments (excluding the BID and special assessments attributable to additions or capital improvements, other than replacements, to the Building which are not customary for a first-class office Building) on or with respect to the Building and the Land upon which it is located, assessed, levied, or imposed by any governmental authority having jurisdiction. Excluded (unless in substitution in whole or in part for Taxes and Real Estate Taxes) from the foregoing enumerations of Taxes and Real Estate Taxes will be (i) any income, franchise, inheritance, capital stock, excise, excess profits, occupancy or rent, gift, estate, payroll or stamp taxes or foreign ownership or control taxes or any so-called "Gains Tax" imposed pursuant to Article 31-B of the New York State Tax Law (the "Gains Tax") and deed tax or transfer tax imposed by Article 29 of the New York State Tax Law, and any mortgage recording tax imposed by Article 11 of the New York State Tax Law; (ii) any expenses incurred by Landlord, or Landlord's estate, including payments to attorneys and appraisers, in contesting the Taxes and Real Estate Taxes by tax certiorari proceedings and such expenses and payments shall be the obligation of Landlord, and (iii) any Taxes resulting from an increase of the assessed value of the Building attributable to additions or capital improvements (other than replacements) to the Building unless such addition or capital improvement was made in whole or in part for the benefit of tenants generally. As of the date hereof, to the best of Landlord's knowledge, the only Taxes affecting the Building and/or the Land are the real estate taxes payable to the City of New York as Pilot.

Tenant covenants and agrees that for each lease year of the Term commencing with July 1, 1998, where the total annual Real Estate Taxes imposed or assessed upon the land and Building for such lease year is greater than the Tax base for the New York City fiscal year 1997/1998 (hereinafter referred to as the "Real Estate Tax Base Year"), Tenant shall pay to Landlord as additional rent, a sum equal to two point three seven percent (2.37%) of such increase, which represents Tenant's proportionate share of such increase. The amount of such additional rent payable for any lease year having a duration of less than twelve (12) months shall be prorated.

The Tax base for the Real Estate Tax Base Year shall be the annual Real Estate Taxes finally imposed or assessed on the Land and Building for the Real Estate Tax Base Year.

Appropriate credit shall be given for any refund obtained by reason of a reduction in the assessed valuation made by the assessors or the courts at any time during this Lease or at any time thereafter taking into account Landlord's costs in obtaining any such reduction. The original computations, as well as payments of additional rent, if any, under the provisions of this Article, shall be based on the original assessed valuation with adjustments to be made if and when the Tax refund, if any, has been paid to Landlord.

If the assessment of the land and Building shall be reduced for the Real Estate Tax Base Year as a result of protests of proceedings filed therefor, then the Tax base shall be amended to the amount actually collectible by the City of New York for the base fiscal tax year on the corrected assessment. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to notify Tenant in writing each time a tax assessment is challenged. This paragraph shall also apply to the Base Pilot Square Foot Factor.

1. The term "Pilot" shall mean ~~(H)~~(i) such payments as the Port Authority has agreed to pay the City of New York under an agreement dated 1967 as it may have been or may be hereafter supplemented or amended (the "City Agreement") and (ii) all payments in lieu of ~~real estate taxes~~ Real Estate Taxes or assessments which may be agreed upon between the Port Authority and any governmental authorities (Federal, State or City, or any political subdivision thereof) other than as provided in the City Agreement, but not any amounts in excess of those imposed under the City Agreement.

2. The term "Pilot Square Foot Factor" shall mean the annual per rentable square foot factor used in computing the Pilot under the City Agreement for the relevant Tax Year. If payments under the City Agreement become payable on a basis other than an annual amount per occupied rentable square foot (as defined in Section 5.1.7 of the Underlying Lease), then unless such payments are separately assessed and levied or allocated to the Real Property, the Port Authority will allocate such payments equitably on the basis of proration between the total number of square feet in the World Trade Center subject to such payments and the total number of square feet in the Building subject to such payments and Landlord will notify Tenant of such allocation, in which event, the "Pilot Square Foot Factor" shall equal the payments so allocated to the Building divided by the Building Area, i.e., 1,936,000 square feet.

3. The term "Base Pilot Square Foot Factor" shall mean the Pilot Square Foot Factor applicable to the period July 1, 1997 through June 30, 1998 (as finally determined).

4. The term "Pilot Rate Multiple" shall mean the number of rentable square feet allocated to the Demised Premises for purposes of Section 6.8 of the Underlying Lease, such number of rentable square feet to be determined pursuant to Section 5.1.7 of the Underlying Lease.

5. The term "Tax Year" shall mean the twelve (12) month period commencing

July 1 of each year, or such other period of twelve (12) months as may be duly adopted as the fiscal year for real estate tax purposes in the City of New York.

6. (A) Tenant shall pay as additional rent for each Tax Year, all or any portion of which shall be within the Term a sum ("Tenant's Pilot Payment") computed by multiplying the Pilot Rate Multiple by the excess of the Pilot Square Foot Factor for such Tax Year over the Base Pilot Square Foot Factor. Tenant's Pilot Payment for each Tax Year shall be due and payable by Tenant within twenty (20) days after receipt of a demand from Landlord, based upon the most recent Landlord's Statement. If there shall be any increase or decrease in Pilot for any Tax Year, whether during or after such Tax Year, Landlord shall furnish a revised Landlord's Statement for such Tax Year. If a Landlord's Statement is furnished to Tenant after the commencement of a Tax Year in respect of which such Landlord's Statement is rendered, Tenant shall, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such statement, pay to Landlord the amount of any underpayment of Tenant's Pilot Payment with respect to such Tax Year or in the event of any overpayment, Landlord shall pay to Tenant the amount of Tenant's overpayment. If at any time after the date hereof, Taxes or Pilot are required to be paid (either to the appropriate taxing authorities or to the Ground Lessor or as escrow payments to the holder of any superior mortgage or the lessor of any superior lease, in full or in monthly, quarterly or other installments on any date or dates other than as presently required, then upon notice thereof from Landlord, Tenant's Pilot Payment and Tenant's Tax Payment shall be correspondingly accelerated or revised so that said Tenant's Pilot Payment and Tenant's Tax Payment are due at least thirty (30) days prior to the date payments are due to the taxing authorities or the Ground Lessor or the superior mortgagee.

(B) Only Landlord shall have the right to institute tax reduction or other proceedings to reduce the Taxes or the assessed valuation of the Real Property. Nothing herein shall obligate Landlord to file any application or institute any such proceeding.

(C) If a Tax Year begins prior to the Commencement Date or ends after the Expiration Date or sooner termination of this Lease (other than pursuant to Article 30), Tenant's Pilot Payment and Tenant's Tax Payment with respect to such Tax Year shall be apportioned in the ratio of the number of days in such Tax Year occurring within the Term to the total number of days in such Tax Year. If the Commencement Date shall occur on a date other than June 1 or December 1, and there shall be a Tenant's Pilot Payment and Tenant's Tax Payment payable with respect to the period commencing on the Commencement Date, such Tenant's Pilot Payment or Tenant's Tax Payment shall not become due until Landlord shall have furnished a Landlord's Statement with respect thereto and in no event until after the Commencement Date.

(D) Landlord will use reasonable efforts to obtain a waiver by the Port Authority for payment of Tenant's Pilot Payment from Tenant named herein. disruption or terminate its contract with such contractor.

(F) Landlord, at its expense, shall furnish adequate water to the Demised Premises for drinking, lavatory and cleaning purposes. If Tenant uses water for any other purpose Landlord, at Tenant's expense, shall install meters to measure Tenant's consumption of water for such other purposes. Tenant shall pay for the quantities of water shown on such meters, at Landlord's cost thereof, on the rendition of Landlord's bills therefor. Heating of water for lavatory and cleaning purposes shall be performed by equipment located on each floor of the Demised Premises. Said equipment shall be maintained and repaired by Landlord, at Tenant's expense, by the contractor designated by Landlord. The electricity used to operate said equipment shall be connected at Tenant's expense to Tenant's electric meter and shall be paid by Tenant as provided in Article 10.

(G) Landlord, at its expense, and on Tenant's request, shall maintain the original listings on the Building directory of the names of Tenant, and the names of any of their officers and employees, provided that the names so listed shall not take up more than Tenant's Proportionate Share of the lines on the Building directory. In the event Tenant shall require additional or substitute listings on the Building directory, Landlord shall, to the extent space for such additional or substitute listing is available, maintain such listings and Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to Landlord's reasonable charge for such listings.

(H) Landlord reserves the right, without any liability to Tenant, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease, to stop service of any of the heating, ventilating, air conditioning, electric, sanitary, elevator or other Building systems serving the Demised Premises, or the rendition of any of the other services required of Landlord under this Lease, whenever and

(A) (a) The Building will be equipped with risers, feeders and wiring so as to furnish electric service (connected load) to the Demised Premises of 6 watts per rentable square foot of the Demised Premises for lighting and power, excluding power to service the Building air conditioning equipment and hot water heater located on the floor of the Demised Premises. Additionally, a meter system (or other measuring devices) will be furnished and installed by Landlord, at Landlord's cost, to measure the amount of "Usage" solely to the Demised Premises. Where more than one meter measures the amount of Usage, Usage through each meter shall be billed in the aggregate with coincidental demand in accordance with the provisions of this Article 10;

(b) Any additional risers, feeders or other equipment or service proper or necessary to supply Tenant's electrical requirements above the service set forth in subdivision (a), will, upon written request of Tenant, be installed by Landlord, at the sole cost and expense of Tenant, if in Landlord's sole judgment, the same are necessary and will not cause permanent damage or injury to the Building or the Demised Premises or cause or create a dangerous or hazardous condition or entail excessive or unreasonable alterations, repairs or expense or interfere with or disturb tenants or occupants. If, in Landlord's sole judgment, Landlord shall consent to the installation of such riser or risers, in addition to such installation, Landlord will also at Tenant's sole cost and expense, install all other equipment proper and necessary in connection therewith subject to the aforesaid terms and conditions.

(B) For purposes of Paragraphs (B) and (C):

(a) "Usage" shall mean Tenant's actual usage of electricity in the Demised Premises as measured by the aforesaid metering system for each calendar month or such other period as Landlord shall determine during the Term and shall include the quantity and peak demand (kilowatt hours and kilowatts) and all applicable taxes, surcharges, demand charges, energy charges, fuel adjustment charges, time of day charges and other adjustments made from time to time by the public utility company (or successor thereto) supplying electric current to the Building or any governmental authority having jurisdiction;

(b) "Landlord's Rate" shall mean the service classification (including all applicable taxes, surcharges, demand charges, energy charges, fuel adjustment charges, time of day charges and other sums payable in respect thereof) pursuant to which Landlord purchases electric current for the Building from the public utility company (or successor thereto) supplying electric current to the Building and including the voltage stepdown cost incurred by Landlord to reduce the voltage supplied to the Building as distributed to Tenant; and

(c) "Tenant's Cost" shall mean the product of ~~(i)~~ Usage multiplied by (ii) Landlord's Rate.

(C) Landlord shall, from time to time but not more often than monthly, furnish Tenant with an invoice indicating the period during which the Usage was measured and the amount of Tenant's Cost payable by Tenant to Landlord for such period. Within five (5) days after receipt of each such invoice, Tenant shall pay the amount of Tenant's Cost set forth thereon to Landlord as additional rent. In addition, if any tax is imposed upon Landlord by any municipal, state or federal agency or subdivision with respect to the purchase, sale or resale of electrical energy supplied to Tenant hereunder, Tenant covenants and agrees that, where permitted by law, a portion of such taxes (based on the amount of Tenant's Cost as applied to the appropriate tax rate) shall be passed on to, included in the bill to and paid by, Tenant to Landlord, as additional rent.

(D) Landlord shall not in anywise be liable or responsible to Tenant for any loss or damage or expense which Tenant may sustain or incur if either the quantity or character of electric service is changed or is no longer available or suitable to Tenant's requirements.

(E) Tenant agrees not to connect any additional electrical equipment of any type to the Building electric distribution system, beyond that on Tenant's approved plans for initial occupancy, other than lamps, typewriters and other small office machines which consume comparable amounts of electricity, without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In no event shall Tenant use or install any fixtures, equipment or machines the use of which in conjunction with other fixtures, equipment and machines in the Demised Premises would result in an overload of the electrical circuits servicing the Demised Premises. At any time, and from time to time, Landlord and/or its representatives shall have the right to inspect the Demised Premises to identify all electrical equipment being utilized therein.

(F) Tenant covenants and agrees that at all times its use of electric current shall never exceed the service set forth in Paragraph A and the capacity of the then existing feeders to the Building or the risers or wiring installation. Landlord shall furnish, install and replace, as required, all lighting tubes, lamps, bulbs and ballasts required in the Demised Premises, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, in an amount equal to Landlord's cost. All lighting tubes, lamps, bulbs and ballasts so installed shall become Landlord's property upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease.

(G) In the event the metering system installed for the measurement of electricity consumption in the Demised Premises or any alternative submetering system installed by Landlord at a later date, becomes prohibited from use or the metering system should fail to properly register or operate at any time during the Term for any reason whatsoever or if the metering system shall become operable subsequent to the date that Tenant, or anyone (including, without limitation, any contractors or other workmen) claiming under or through Tenant first enters the Demised Premises, then Landlord, at its expense, may cause an independent electrical engineer chosen by Landlord or an electrical consulting firm selected by Landlord (hereinafter referred to as the "Electrical Consultant") to survey and determine Usage in, and Tenant's Cost for, the Demised Premises from time to time, at least once per six (6) month period, and the Electrical Consultant shall make such determination using criteria generally accepted in the Metropolitan New York City area and Landlord's Rate in effect at the time, and shall include the quantity and peak demand, for all electricity consumed by Tenant. The determination made by the Electrical Consultant shall be binding on both Landlord and Tenant and such amount shall be deemed Tenant's Cost.

ARTICLE 11ALTERATIONS BY TENANT

Tenant may make non-structural interior alterations, decorations, installations, additions and improvements in and to the Demised Premises and may erect signs therein or thereon.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall make no alterations, additions or improvements which (i) affect the mechanical, electrical or other systems of the Building, or (ii) are structural or (iii) affect the exterior or lobby or service areas of the Building, without Landlord's written consent. In making any such alterations, decorations, installations, additions or improvements, Tenant shall comply with all laws, rules, regulations of governmental authorities (including, the Port Authority) having jurisdiction and the New York Board of Fire Underwriters and Insurance Services Office and shall save Landlord harmless from any and all bills for labor performed and equipment, fixtures and materials furnished Tenant in connection therewith. The cost thereof shall be promptly paid by Tenant so that the Building and the Demised Premises shall at all times be free of liens for labor and materials supplied or claimed to have been supplied. Tenant's alterations shall be subject to the prior approval of Landlord, the Port Authority and reimbursement to Landlord for its out-of-pocket costs of review. Fees of the Port Authority shall be paid by Tenant and Tenant shall not violate Landlord's union contracts affecting the Real Property. All property of whatever kind or nature in or on the Demised Premises owned, installed or paid for by Tenant shall be and remain the property of Tenant and upon the termination of this Lease, renewal, extension or holdover period, Tenant shall have the option of removing such property or of surrendering such property (including partition systems and/or furniture located in the Demised Premises) to Landlord, in either event without any liability to Landlord. Tenant shall exercise its option by giving written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days prior to the termination of this Lease, renewal, extension or holdover period. If Tenant shall fail to give such notice or shall fail to remove such property upon termination of this Lease, renewal, extension or holdover period, the property shall be deemed to be surrendered without any payment for removal owed to Landlord.

END OF TERM

Upon the expiration or other termination of the Term of this Lease, Tenant shall quit and surrender the Demised Premises in good order and condition with ordinary wear and tear, and damage by the elements, including fire or other casualty, excepted.

REPAIRS

Landlord shall make all interior, exterior and structural repairs, excluding such repairs necessitated by the acts or negligence of Tenant or its invitees, but including maintenance, repair or replacement of the roof, windows and window glass, Building plumbing, and electrical systems, common areas, removal of graffiti from the exterior and interior of the Building and/or the Demised Premises, and all repairs needed because of Landlord's negligence or because of defective materials or workmanship in the construction and/or improvement by Landlord of the Demised Premises or of the Building of which they are a part. Landlord shall repair and maintain any sidewalks, curbs and passageways adjoining and/or appurtenant to the Demised Premises in good, clean and orderly condition, free of dirt, rubbish, snow, ice and unlawful obstruction.

Landlord is not responsible for making any repairs to Tenant's Initial Work, Tenant's installations, alterations, additions or improvements, except if due to Landlord's acts or negligence.

In the event Landlord fails to fulfill its obligations, Tenant may, in addition to its other remedies, give written notice to Landlord specifying the repairs required by Tenant and Landlord shall commence performance of such work within three (3) business days after the giving of such notice and diligently proceed to complete said work.

Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event the repairs to be performed by the Landlord are required to correct a hazardous condition or to end an emergency which renders the premises unsuitable for the use set forth herein (excluding fire or casualty), Tenant shall give Landlord, its agent, superintendent or the person designated to receive such notice, immediate notice in writing, personally or by certified mail, and Landlord, within 5 business days of receiving said notice, shall commence the repairs and diligently proceed with continuity to complete said work. In the event Landlord fails to commence and complete said work after said notice, as aforesaid, Tenant may, as agent for the Landlord, perform same and deduct the reasonable cost thereof from any rent due or that may become due and payable under this Lease.

In the event Tenant is unable to use any part or all of the Demised Premises because of Landlord's failure to perform such work as set forth in the two preceding paragraphs hereof, the rent shall be reduced, during such period, proportionately to the diminution in space resulting from such failure.

Tenant shall make such ordinary and nonstructural interior repairs as necessary for its occupancy or request Landlord, at Tenant's expense to perform such repairs..

CONDEMNATION

If the whole of the Demised Premises shall be taken in condemnation, this Lease shall terminate upon the vesting of title in the condemnor and all rent and other charges paid or payable by Tenant shall be apportioned as of the date of vesting of title in such condemnation proceeding.

If less than all but more than 50% of the useable area of the Demised Premises shall be so taken in condemnation, then Tenant may either terminate this Lease as to the remainder of the premises on ten (10) days written notice to Landlord or remain in possession of the remaining portion of the premises under all of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Lease, except that the rent thereafter shall be apportioned and reduced from the date of each such partial taking to the amount equal to the product of the dollar amount of rent payable on such date and the number of square feet in the part remaining. The proceeds of any award for partial taking shall be applied by Landlord to the repair, restoration or replacement of the remaining premises, and if there be any deficiency, it shall be made up by Landlord, but if there be any surplus, it shall belong to the Landlord. Said repairs, restoration or replacement of the remaining premises shall be completed within nine (9) months of the aforesaid taking in condemnation, pursuant to plans and specifications approved by the ~~Department of (Agency)~~ Tenant. In the event said repairs, restoration or replacement are not completed within said nine (9) month period, Tenant, in addition to any other remedy it may have, may terminate this Lease or perform said repairs, restoration and replacement and deduct the cost thereof from any rent which may be due and payable under this Lease.

Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire award in any proceeding with respect to any taking provided for in this Article without deduction therefrom for any estate vested in Tenant by this Lease and Tenant shall receive no part of such award, except as hereinafter expressly provided in this Article. Tenant hereby expressly assigns to Landlord all of its right, title and interest in or to every such award. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Tenant may, at its sole cost and expense, make an independent claim with the condemning authority for Tenant's moving expenses, the value of Tenant's fixtures or Tenant's alterations which do not become part of the Building or property of the Landlord, provided however that Landlord's award is not thereby reduced or otherwise adversely affected.

DESTRUCTION BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

If the whole of the Demised Premises is totally destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty, or destroyed or damaged to such an extent that they are unsuitable or untenable for use for the purpose for which they are leased, then from the date of such damage or destruction the rent shall cease until such time as Landlord fully repairs and restores the same to suitable and tenantable condition ~~and HRA/Occupying Agency/DRES~~ (excluding Long Lead Work) and Tenant/DRES certifies in writing that the entire Demised Premises have been reoccupied by Tenant, such Certification not to be unreasonably withheld ~~or~~, delayed or conditioned.

Landlord may terminate this Lease by notice to Tenant within thirty (30) days from the date of such fire or other casualty, provided Landlord terminates more than 50% of the remaining leases in the Building. If no such notice is given, Landlord shall, subject to receipt of insurance proceeds, within forty-five (45) days after such fire or other casualty, commence and diligently proceed with continuity to complete the repairs and restoration of the Demised Premises to their condition prior to said fire or casualty, suitable for use for the purpose for which the premises were leased. If Landlord fails to complete the restoration within two hundred and seventy (270) days after such commencement or if the parties mutually agree within 30 days after the casualty that the damage cannot be repaired within 270 days of the occurrence, Tenant may terminate this Lease on ten (10) days written notice.

If the Demised Premises are partially damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall, subject to receipt of insurance proceeds, within forty-five (45) days after such fire or other casualty, commence and diligently proceed to complete the repairs and restoration of the Demised Premises to their condition prior to said fire or casualty. If Landlord fails to commence as aforesaid or to complete the same within one hundred twenty (120) days after such commencement, Tenant, in addition to any other remedy it may have, may perform such repairs and restoration and reimburse itself for the cost thereof from any rent due or which may become due under this Lease.

From the date of such partial damage to the date certified by ~~HRA/Occupying Agency/DRES~~ Tenant/DRES in writing that the entire premises have been restored, excluding Long Lead Work, Tenant shall pay rent for that part of the premises it is using during the alterations and repairs on a square foot basis in an amount equal to the product of the dollar amount of rent per square foot payable on such date and the number of square feet being occupied by Tenant.

The time periods in this Article shall exclude Long Lead Work. The term “Long Lead Work” as used in this Lease shall mean any item of a repair to Tenant’s Initial Work or Tenant’s alterations to be made by Landlord pursuant to this Article 15 which item must be specifically manufactured or fabricated and is not a Building standard item commonly found in first class non-institutional office buildings in Manhattan, with the result that there will be a delay in its manufacture, fabrication, delivery or installation, notwithstanding that the order for same was given in due course, so that the item of repair in question delays the completion of the standard items of the repair even though the items of Long Lead Work in question are (1) ordered together with the other items required for the repair and (2) then installed or performed (after the manufacture or fabrication thereof) in order and sequence that such Long Lead Work and other items of repair are normally installed or performed in accordance with good construction practice.

Tenant shall notify Landlord of the completion of any Tenant’s alterations, and Specialty Alterations and of the cost thereof, and shall maintain adequate records with respect to same to facilitate the adjustment of any insurance claims with respect thereto. In addition, as a condition to Landlord’s obligation to provide and maintain insurance covering any Specialty Alterations and to repair and restore such Specialty Alterations pursuant to the provisions of this Article, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a schedule of Specialty Alterations after their completion and certificates of the costs thereof. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, as additional rent hereunder, ten (10) business days after demand for the amount of any insurance premiums paid or payable by Landlord which are specifically attributable to the cost of insuring any such Specialty Alterations. Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord and Landlord's insurance companies in the adjustment of any claims for any damage to the Building or such Tenant's alterations or Specialty Alterations. The term "Specialty Alterations" as used in this Lease shall mean alterations, installations, improvements, additions or other physical changes (other than decorations) in or about the Demised Premises consisting of kitchens, executive bathrooms, raised computer floors, vaults and other alterations of a similar character.

Landlord will not carry insurance of any kind on Tenant's property or Tenant's alterations, and, except as provided by law or by reason of its fault or its breach of any of its obligations hereunder, Landlord shall not be obligated to repair any damage thereto or replace the same.

The provisions of this Article shall be considered an express agreement governing any case of damage or destruction of the Demised Premises by fire or other casualty, and Section 227 of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, providing for such a contingency in the absence of an express agreement, and any other law of like import, now or hereafter in force, shall have no application in such case.

NO EMPLOYEE OF CITY HAS ANY INTEREST IN LEASE

Landlord warrants and represents that no officer, agent, employee or representative of The City of New York has received any payment or other consideration for the making of this Lease and that no officer, agent, employee or representative of The City of New York has any interest, directly or indirectly, in this Lease or the proceeds thereof.

QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord covenants that Tenant, paying the rent reserved herein, and performing all of the other terms, covenants and conditions on its part to be performed, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Demised Premises for the use and purpose stated in this Lease.

ACCESS BY DISABLED PERSONS

Landlord represents that the premises demised herein are suitable for access by disabled persons.

SUBORDINATION AND NON-DISTURBANCE

(A) This Lease shall be subject and subordinate to all existing mortgages of record or future mortgages from a reputable lender or lending institution which may affect the real property of which the Demised Premises form a part, provided, and as a condition precedent to the subordination of this Lease to any of said mortgages, the mortgagee shall execute and deliver to Tenant an agreement in recordable form and in the form reasonably acceptable to Tenant whereby said mortgagee agrees that should it become necessary to foreclose such mortgage or should the mortgagee otherwise come into possession of the premises, such mortgagee will not join Tenant under this Lease in foreclosure or summary proceedings and will not disturb the use and occupancy of Tenant under this Lease so long as Tenant is not in default under any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing Subparagraph A., Landlord agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to deliver to Tenant, prior to the ~~Rent~~ Commencement Date , 1998, a fully negotiated and executed Subordination, Nondisturbance and Attornment Agreement, signed by, Landlord (if required) and Landlord's current mortgagees.

(C) This Lease, and all rights of Tenant hereunder, are and shall be subject and subordinate in all respects to the Underlying Lease, all ground leases, overriding leases and underlying leases of the Land and/or the Building now or hereafter existing and to all mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the Land and/or the Building and/or any of such leases, whether or not such mortgages shall also cover other lands and/or buildings, to each and every advance made or hereafter to be made under such mortgages, and to all renewals, modifications, replacements and extensions of such leases and such mortgages and spreaders and consolidations of such mortgages. This Section shall be self-operative and no further instrument of subordination shall be required. In confirmation of such subordination, Tenant shall promptly execute and deliver any instrument that Landlord, the lessor of any such lease or the holder of any such mortgage or any of their respective successors in interest may request to evidence subordination. The leases to which this Lease is, at the time referred to, subject and subordinate pursuant to this Article are hereinafter sometimes referred to as "superior leases" and the mortgages to which this Lease is, at the time referred to, subject and subordinate are hereinafter sometimes referred to as "superior mortgages" and the lessor of a superior lease or its successor in interest at the time referred to is sometimes hereinafter referred to as a "lessor". If, in connection with the obtaining, continuing or renewing of financing, a superior lessor or superior mortgagee or a prospective superior lessor or prospective superior mortgagee shall request reasonable modifications of this Lease as a condition of such financing, Tenant will not unreasonably withhold its consent thereto, provided that such modifications do not materially and adversely either increase the obligations of Tenant hereunder or affect the rights of Tenant under this Lease.

(D) In the event of any act or omission of Landlord which would give Tenant the right, immediately or after lapse of a period of time, to cancel or terminate this Lease, or to claim a partial or total eviction, Tenant shall not exercise such right (i) until it has given written notice of such act or omission to the holder of each superior mortgage and the lessor of each superior Lease whose name and address shall previously have been furnished to Tenant in writing, and (ii) unless such act or omission shall be one which is not capable of being remedied by Landlord or such mortgage holder or lessor within a reasonable period of time, until a reasonable period for remedying such act or omission shall have elapsed following the giving of such notice and following the time when such holder or lessor shall have become entitled under such superior mortgage or superior lease, as the case may be, to remedy the same (which reasonable period shall in no event be less than the period to which Landlord would be entitled under this Lease or otherwise, after similar notice, to effect such remedy), provided such holder or lessor shall with due diligence give Tenant written notice of intention to, and commence and continue to remedy such act or omission.

(E) If the lessor of a superior lease or the holder of a superior mortgage shall succeed to the rights of Landlord under this Lease, whether through possession or foreclosure action or delivery of a new lease or deed, then at the option and upon request of such party so succeeding to Landlord's rights (herein sometimes referred to as "successor landlord") and upon successor landlord's written agreement to accept Tenant's attornment, Tenant shall attorn to and recognize such successor landlord as Tenant's landlord under this Lease, and shall promptly execute and deliver any instrument that such successor landlord may reasonably request to evidence such attornment. Upon such attornment this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as, or as if it were, a direct lease between the successor landlord and Tenant upon all of the terms, conditions and covenants as are set forth in this Lease and shall be applicable after such attornment except that the successor landlord shall not:

(a) be liable for any previous act or omission of Landlord under this Lease;

(b) be subject to any offset, not expressly provided for in this Lease, which shall have theretofore accrued to Tenant against Landlord;

(c) be bound by any previous amendment or modification of this Lease, not expressly provided for in this Lease, or by any previous prepayment of more than one month's fixed rent or additional rent, unless such amendment or modification or prepayment shall have been expressly approved in writing by the lessor of the superior lease or the holder of the superior mortgage through or by reason of which the successor landlord shall have succeeded to the rights of Landlord under this Lease.

(F) Tenant covenants and agrees that, if by reason of a default upon the part of Landlord who is the Lessee under the Underlying Lease, in the performance of any of the terms or provisions of the Underlying Lease or if for any other reason of any nature whatsoever the Underlying Lease and the leasehold estate of the Lessee thereunder are terminated by summary dispossess proceeding or otherwise, Tenant, shall attorn to and recognize such landlord as Tenant's landlord under this Lease. Tenant covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, at any time and from time to time, upon the request of the landlord under the Underlying Lease, any instrument which may be necessary or appropriate to evidence such attornment. Tenant further waives the provisions of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in effect which may terminate this Lease or give or purport to give Tenant any right of election to terminate this Lease or to surrender possession of the Demised Premises in the event the Underlying Lease terminates or in the event any such proceeding is brought by the landlord under the Underlying Lease, and in that circumstance Tenant agrees that this Lease shall not be affected in any way whatsoever by any such proceeding or termination.

ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

(A) Tenant, for itself, its heirs, distributees, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, expressly covenants that it shall not assign, mortgage or encumber this agreement, nor underlet, nor suffer, nor permit the Demised Premises or any part thereof to be used or occupied by others, without the prior written consent of Landlord in each instance. If this Lease be assigned, or if the Demised Premises or any part thereof be underlet or occupied by anybody other than Tenant, Landlord may, after default by Tenant, collect rent from the assignee, undertenant or occupant, and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no assignment, underletting, occupancy or collection shall be deemed a waiver of the provisions hereof, the acceptance of the assignee, undertenant or occupant as tenant, or a release of Tenant from the further performance by Tenant of covenants on the part of Tenant herein contained. The consent by Landlord to an assignment or underletting shall not in any wise be construed to relieve Tenant from obtaining the express consent in writing of Landlord to any further assignment or underletting. In no event shall any permitted sublessee assign or encumber its sublease or further sublet all or any portion of its sublet space, or otherwise suffer or permit the sublet space or any part thereof to be used or occupied by others, without Landlord's prior written consent in each instance.

(B) If Tenant shall at any time or times during the Term desire to assign this Lease or sublet all or part of the Demised Premises, Tenant shall give notice thereof to Landlord, which notice shall be accompanied by (a) a conformed or photostatic copy of the proposed assignment or sublease, the effective or commencement date of which shall be not less than ~~sixty (60)~~ thirty (30) nor more than one hundred eighty (180) days after the giving of such notice, (b) a statement setting forth in reasonable detail the identity of the proposed assignee or subtenant, the nature of its business and its proposed use of the Demised Premises, and (c) current financial information with respect to the proposed assignee or subtenant, including, without limitation, its most recent financial report.

(C) Provided that Tenant is not in default of any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease after notice and the expiration of any applicable grace period, Landlord's consent (which must be in writing and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord) to the proposed assignment or sublease shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, provided and upon condition that;

(a) Tenant shall have complied with the provisions of Paragraph B;

(b) In Landlord's reasonable judgment the proposed assignee or subtenant is engaged in a business and the Demised Premises, or the relevant part thereof, will be used in a manner which (i) is in keeping with the then standards of the Building, (ii) is limited to the use expressly permitted under this Lease, and (iii) will not violate any negative covenant as to use contained in any other lease of space in the Building;

(c) The proposed assignee or subtenant is a reputable person of good character and with sufficient financial worth considering the responsibility involved, and Landlord has been furnished with reasonable proof thereof;

(d) Neither (i) the proposed assignee or sublessee nor (ii) any person which, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the proposed assignee or sublessee or any person who controls the proposed assignee or sublessee, is then an occupant of any part of the Building;

(e) The proposed assignee or sublessee is not a person with whom Landlord is then negotiating to lease space in the Building;

(f) The form of the proposed sublease shall be in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and shall comply with the applicable provisions of this Article;

(g) No subletting shall be for less than _____ contiguous rentable square feet and at no time shall there be more than _____ (____) occupants, including Tenant, in the Demised Premises;

~~(h) The amount of the fixed and additional rent to be paid by the proposed subtenant is not less than the fixed rent and additional rent per rentable square foot at which Landlord is then offering to lease other space in the Building;~~

(i) Tenant shall reimburse Landlord on demand for any reasonable costs that may be incurred by

Landlord in connection with said assignment or sublease, including, without limitation, the costs of making investigations as to the acceptability of the proposed assignee or subtenant, and reasonable legal costs incurred in connection with the granting of any requested consent;

~~(j)~~(i) Tenant (and any broker engaged by Tenant) shall not have advertised or publicized in any way whether through newspapers, brochures, mailings or otherwise, the proposed rental Tenant is seeking;

~~(k)~~(j) The sublease shall not allow the use of the Demised Premises or any part thereof for (i) the preparation and/or sale of food for on or off premises consumption or (ii) use by a foreign or domestic governmental agency (other than an agency of Tenant named herein) or (iii) any use prohibited under this Lease;

and

~~(h)~~(k) The proposed assignee or subtenant shall, in the opinion of the Port Authority (if required by the terms of the Underlying Lease), be eligible, suitable and qualified as a World Trade Center tenant; and

(l) The assignee or subtenant shall agree in writing to maintain insurance in amounts and coverage as then required by Landlord of tenants in the Building;-

Each subletting pursuant to this Article shall be subject to all of the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease. Notwithstanding any such subletting to Landlord or any such subletting to any other subtenant and/or acceptance of rent or additional rent by Landlord from any subtenant, Tenant shall and will remain fully liable for the payment of the fixed rent and additional rent due and to become due hereunder and for the performance of all the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions and conditions contained in this Lease on the part of Tenant to be performed and all acts and omissions of any licensee or subtenant or anyone claiming under or through any subtenant which shall be in violation of any of the obligations of this Lease, and any such violation shall be deemed to be a violation by Tenant. Tenant further agrees that notwithstanding any such subletting, no other and further subletting of the Demised Premises by Tenant or any person claiming through or under Tenant shall or will be made except upon compliance with and subject to the provisions of this Article. If Landlord shall decline to give its consent to any proposed assignment or sublease, Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Landlord against and from any and all loss, liability, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable counsel fees) resulting from any claims that may be made against Landlord by the proposed assignee or sublessee or by any brokers or other persons claiming a commission or similar compensation in connection with the proposed assignment or sublease.

(D) In the event that Tenant fails to execute and deliver the assignment or sublease to which Landlord consented within ninety (90) days after the giving of such consent, then, Tenant shall again comply with all of the provisions and conditions of Paragraph (B) before assigning this Lease or subletting all or part of the Demised Premises.

(E) With respect to each and every sublease or subletting authorized by Landlord under the provisions of this Lease, it is further agreed:

(a) no subletting shall be for a term ending later than one day prior to the Expiration Date of this Lease;

(b) no sublease shall be valid, and no subtenant shall take possession of the

Demised Premises or any part thereof, until an executed counterpart of such sublease has been delivered to Landlord; and

(c) each sublease shall provide that it is subject and subordinate to this Lease and to the matters to which this Lease is or shall be subordinate, and that in the event of termination, re-entry or dispossession by Landlord under this Lease Landlord may, at its option, take over all of the right, title and interest of Tenant, as sublessor, under such sublease, and such subtenant shall at Landlord's option, attorn to Landlord pursuant to the then executory provisions of such sublease, except that Landlord shall not (i) be liable for any previous act or omission of Tenant under such sublease, (ii) be subject to any offset, not expressly provided in such sublease, which theretofore accrued to such subtenant against Tenant, or (iii) be bound by any previous modification of such sublease or by any previous prepayment of more than one month's rent.

(F) If the Landlord shall give its consent to any assignment of this Lease or to any sublease, Tenant shall in consideration therefor, pay to Landlord, as additional rent;

(a) in the case of an assignment, an amount equal to fifty (50%) percent of all sums and other considerations paid to Tenant by the assignee for or by reason of such assignment (including, but not limited to, sums paid for the sale of Tenant's fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture, furnishings or other personal property, less, in the case of a sale thereof, the then net unamortized or undepreciated cost thereof determined on the basis of Tenant's federal income tax returns) after deducting Tenant's Permitted Expenses (as hereinafter defined); and

(b) in the case of a sublease, fifty (50%) percent of the Net Sublease Proceeds, which shall mean any rents, additional charges or other consideration payable under the sublease to Tenant by the subtenant which is in excess of the fixed rent and additional rent accruing during the term of the sublease in respect of the subleased space (at the rate per square foot payable by Tenant hereunder) pursuant to the terms hereof (including, but not limited to, sums paid for the sale or rental of Tenant's fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture or other personal property, less, in the case of the sale thereof, the then net unamortized or undepreciated cost thereof determined on the basis of Tenant's federal income tax returns) after deducting therefrom Tenant's Permitted Expenses. The sums payable under this Paragraph (F)(b) shall be paid to Landlord as and when paid by the subtenant to Tenant.

(c) For purposes of this Paragraph F, "Tenant's Permitted Expenses" shall mean the aggregate of (1) brokerage commissions, reasonable legal fees and disbursements and closing costs to third parties, reasonable advertising expenses, any amounts payable to Landlord for reimbursement of costs incurred in connection with any proposed sublease or assignment, and transfer and gains taxes incurred by Tenant to the extent actually paid, and (2) the costs, if any, incurred by Tenant in recovering possession of the sublease space and in preparing the sublease space for occupancy, including cash allowances in lieu thereof.

(G) If Tenant is a corporation, the provisions of Paragraph (a) shall apply to a transfer (by one or more transfers) of a majority of the stock of Tenant as if such transfer of a majority of the stock of Tenant were an assignment of this Lease; but said provisions shall not apply to transactions with a corporation into or with which Tenant is merged or consolidated or to which substantially all of Tenant's assets are transferred or to any corporation which controls or is controlled by Tenant or is under common control with Tenant, provided that in any of such events (a) the successor to Tenant has a net worth computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles at least equal to the greater (i) the net worth of Tenant immediately prior to such merger, consolidation or transfer, or (ii) the net worth of Tenant herein named on the date of this Lease, and (iii) proof satisfactory to Landlord of such net worth shall have been delivered to Landlord at least 10 days prior to the effective date of any such transaction.

(H) Any assignment or transfer shall be made only if, and shall not be effective until, the assignee shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord whereby the assignee shall assume the obligations of this Lease on the part of Tenant to be performed or observed and whereby the assignee shall agree that the provisions in Paragraph (A) shall, notwithstanding such assignment or transfer, continue to be binding upon it in respect of all future assignments and transfers. The original named Tenant covenants that, notwithstanding any assignment or transfer, whether or not in violation of the provisions of this Lease, and notwithstanding the acceptance of fixed rent and/or additional rent by Landlord from an assignee, transferee, or any other party, the original named Tenant shall remain fully liable for the payment of the fixed rent and additional rent and for the other obligations of this Lease on the part of Tenant to be performed or observed.

(I) The joint and several liability of Tenant and any immediate or remote successor in interest of Tenant and the due performance of the obligations of this Lease on Tenant's part to be performed or observed shall not be discharged, released or impaired in any respect by any agreement or stipulation made by Landlord extending the time of, or modifying any of the obligations of, this Lease, or by any waiver or failure of Landlord to enforce any of the obligations of this Lease.

(J) The listing of any name other than that of Tenant, whether on the doors of the Demised Premises or the Building directory, or otherwise, shall not operate to vest any right or interest in this Lease or in the Demised Premises, nor shall it be deemed to be the consent of Landlord to any assignment or transfer of this Lease or to any sublease of the Demised Premises or to the use or occupancy thereof by others.

(K) Tenant hereby agrees that the elevator lobby and public hallways on any floor on which Tenant shall have subleased space to a subtenant shall conform in all respects (including, without limitation, colors schemes) to either (a) the elevator lobby and hallways (if any) on other floors leased to Tenant (if Tenant has leased more than one (1) floor from Landlord) or (b) Landlord's then Building standard for elevator lobbies and public hallways on multi-tenanted floors of the Building, including identifications signs, or shall otherwise be approved in writing by Landlord, prior to the commencement of work thereon, notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary.

Landlord shall provide Tenant with written notice of such transactions upon submission of invoices for Rent or at the end of the calendar year in which the transactions to be billed as Rent were performed by significant related parties. When such transactions occur, prices of same must be in line with normal industry practice in New York City. Upon 5 days notice to Landlord and Landlord's failure to notify Tenant of such related party transactions shall result in a disallowance of such costs that would otherwise be billed as rent. If such related party transactions occurred and were disclosed, but it is found by Tenant that the costs thereof exceed normal industry costs in an arms length third party transaction in New York City, then such excessive charges shall be disallowed. This Article excludes management fees included in Operating Expenses.

Nothing contained in the preceding sentence shall be deemed to vest upon Tenant or any permitted occupant of the Demised Premises any right to install or bring into the Building or the Demised Premises any asbestos or asbestos-containing material.

ARTICLE 27

LANDLORD'S REPRESENTATIONS

Landlord hereby warrants that, to the best of its knowledge, it is not in default of any obligation to the City of New York, nor is Landlord, its officers, principals or stockholders a defendant in any action instituted by the City.

The partners or, if a corporate entity, officers and shareholders of the corporation, who currently own the leasehold estate of the Underlying Lease are as follows:

Any misrepresentation by Landlord with regard to this warranty shall constitute a basis for rescission of this Lease.

NO WAIVER

The failure by Landlord or Tenant to insist, in one or more instances upon the full performance of any of the covenants, conditions or obligations of the other party shall not be construed as a waiver of a subsequent breach of the same or any other covenant or condition, and the consent or approval by Landlord or Tenant to or of any act requiring such consent or approval shall not be construed to waive or render unnecessary consent or approval to or of any subsequent similar act. No provision of this Lease shall be deemed to have been waived by Tenant or Landlord unless such waiver be in writing signed by the party against whom it is to be charged.

BROKERAGE

Landlord and Tenant represent to the other that neither has dealt with any broker in connection with this Lease other than CB COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE GROUP, INC. ("Broker"). Landlord shall pay any commission owing to the Broker. Tenant and Landlord hereby indemnify and hold each other harmless against all loss, damage liability, cost and expense of any nature (including reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements) based on any claim by any party other than the Broker with whom such indemnifying party has dealt for a commission or other compensation in connection with this Lease which is based on the actions of such party or its agents or representatives. The indemnified party shall cooperate with the indemnifying party in any defense; the indemnified party shall not settle a claim, liability or action for which the indemnifying party has the obligation to defend or indemnify without the indemnifying party's consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The foregoing indemnifications shall survive any expiration or termination of this Lease.

ARTICLE 30

CONDITIONS OF LIMITATION

(A) This Lease and the Term and estate hereby granted are subject to the limitations that:

(a) if Tenant shall file a voluntary petition seeking an order for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code, or Tenant shall be adjudicated a debtor, bankrupt or insolvent, or shall file any petition or answer seeking, consenting to or acquiescing in any order for relief, reorganization, arrangement, composition, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief with respect to Tenant or its debts under the present or any future federal bankruptcy act or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law (foreign or domestic), or shall file an answer admitting or failing to deny the material allegations of a petition against it for any such relief or shall generally not, or shall be unable to, pay its debts as they become due or shall admit its insolvency or its inability to pay its debts as they become due, or shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or shall seek or consent or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver, examiner, assignee, sequestrator, custodian or liquidator or similar official of Tenant or of all or any part of Tenant's property or if

Tenant shall take any action in furtherance of or authorizing any of the foregoing; or if Tenant shall call a meeting of, or propose any form of arrangement, composition, extension or adjustment with, its creditors holding a majority in amount of Tenant's outstanding indebtedness; or

(b) if any case, proceeding or other action shall be commenced or instituted against Tenant, seeking to adjudicate Tenant a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking an order for relief against Tenant as debtor, or reorganization, arrangement, composition, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief with respect to Tenant or its debts under any present or future federal bankruptcy act or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law (foreign or domestic), or seeking appointment of any trustee, receiver, examiner, assignee, sequestrator, custodian or liquidator or similar official of Tenant or of all or any part of Tenant's property, which either (i) results in the entry of an order for relief, adjudication of bankruptcy or insolvency or such an appointment or the issuance or entry of any other order having a similar effect or (ii) remains undismissed for a period of sixty (60) days; or if any case, proceeding or other action shall be commenced or instituted against Tenant seeking issuance of a warrant of execution, attachment, distraint or similar process against Tenant or any of Tenant's property which results in either (x) the entry of an order for any such relief which shall not have been vacated, discharged, or stayed or bonded pending appeal within sixty (60) days after the entry thereof or (y) the taking or occupancy of the Demised Premises or an attempt to take or occupy the Demised Premises; or

(c) if Tenant shall default in the payment when due of any installment of fixed rent or in the payment when due of any additional rent, and any such default shall continue for a period of three (3) business days after notice by Landlord to Tenant that such rent is due; or

(d) if Tenant shall default in the performance of any term of this Lease on Tenant's part to be performed (other than the payment of fixed rent and additional rent) and Tenant shall fail to remedy such default as soon as practicable and in any event within fifteen (15) days after notice by Landlord to Tenant of such default, or if such default is of such a nature that it can be remedied, but cannot be completely remedied within said period of fifteen (15) days, if Tenant shall not (x) promptly upon the giving by Landlord of such notice, advise Landlord of Tenant's intention to institute all steps necessary to remedy such situation, (y) promptly institute and thereafter diligently prosecute to completion all steps necessary to remedy the same, and (z) complete such remedy within a reasonable time after the date of the giving of said notice by Landlord and in any event prior to such time as would either (i) subject Landlord, Landlord's agents, superior lessor or superior mortgagee to prosecution for a crime or (ii) cause a default under the Underlying Lease or the superior mortgage; or

(e) if any event shall occur or any contingency shall arise whereby this Lease or the estate hereby granted or the unexpired balance of the Term would, by operation of law or otherwise, devolve upon or pass to any person other than Tenant except as is expressly permitted under Article 20; or

(f) if the Demised Premises shall become abandoned (and the fact that any of Tenant's property remains in the Demised Premises shall not constitute evidence that Tenant has not abandoned the Demised Premises) or if Tenant shall fail to take occupancy of the Demised Premises, or a floor thereof, as the case may be, within one hundred eighty (180) days after the Commencement Date; or

(g) if Tenant shall default in the performance of any term, covenant, agreement or condition on Tenant's part to be observed or performed under any other Lease with Landlord of space in the Building and such default shall continue beyond the grace period, if any, set forth in such other lease for the remedying of such default, then in any of said events Landlord may give to Tenant notice of intention to terminate this Lease and to end the Term and the estate hereby granted at the expiration of three (3) days from the date of the giving of such notice, and, in the event such notice is given, this Lease and the Term and estate hereby granted (whether or not the Term shall have commenced) shall terminate upon the expiration of said three (3) days with the same effect as if that day were the Expiration Date, but Tenant shall remain liable as provided in Article 32.

(B) Nothing in Paragraph (A) shall be deemed to require Landlord to give the notices therein provided for prior to the commencement of a summary proceeding for non-payment of rent or a plenary action for the recovery of rent on account of any default in the payment of the same, it being intended that such notices are for the sole purpose of creating a conditional limitation hereunder pursuant to which this Lease shall terminate and if Tenant thereafter remains in possession or occupancy, it shall become a holdover tenant.

(C) If the Demised Premises shall at any time be or become vacant, deserted or abandoned or if Tenant shall be in default beyond any applicable grace period provided in Paragraph (A), then, in any such event, Landlord may without notice refuse to provide overtime services unless Tenant has made arrangements for advance payment acceptable to Landlord.

(D) If, at any time (a) Tenant shall be comprised of two or more persons, or (b) there is a guarantor of any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, or (c) Tenant's interest in this

Lease shall have been assigned, the word "Tenant", as used in Subsections (a) and (b) of Paragraph (A), shall mean any one or more of the persons primarily or secondarily liable for Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Any sums received by Landlord from or on behalf of Tenant during the pendency of any proceeding of the types referred to in Subsections (a) and (b) of Paragraph (A) shall be deemed paid as compensation for the use and occupancy of the Demised Premises and the acceptance of any such compensation by Landlord shall not be deemed an acceptance of rent or a waiver on the part of Landlord of any rights under this Article or Article 32.

RE-ENTRY BY LANDLORD

(A) If Tenant shall default in the payment of any installment of fixed rent, or of any additional rent, on any date upon which the same ought to be paid, and if such default shall continue for three (3) business days after Landlord shall have given to Tenant a notice specifying such default, or if this Lease shall expire as in Article 30 provided, Landlord or Landlord's agents and employees may immediately or at any time thereafter re-enter the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, either by summary dispossession proceedings or by any suitable action or proceeding at law, or by force or otherwise, without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor, and may repossess the same, and may remove any persons therefrom, to the end that Landlord may have, hold and enjoy the Demised Premises again as and of its first estate and interest therein. The word re-enter, as herein used, is not restricted to its technical legal meaning. In the event of any termination of this Lease under the provisions of Article 30 or if Landlord shall re-enter the Demised Premises under the provisions of this Article or in the event of the termination of this Lease, or of re-entry, by or under any summary dispossession or other proceeding or action or any provision of law by reason of default hereunder on the part of Tenant, Tenant shall thereupon pay to Landlord the fixed rent and additional rent payable by Tenant to Landlord up to the time of such termination of this Lease, or of such recovery of possession of the Demised Premises by Landlord, as the case may be, and shall also pay to Landlord damages as provided in Article 32.

(B) In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Tenant of any of its obligations under this Lease, Landlord shall also have the right of injunction. The special remedies to which Landlord may resort hereunder are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedies or means of redress to which Landlord may lawfully be entitled at any time and Landlord may invoke any remedy allowed at law or in equity as if specific remedies were not provided for herein.

(C) If this Lease shall terminate under the provisions of Article 30, or if Landlord shall re-enter the Demised Premises under the provisions of this Article, or in the event of the termination of this Lease, or of re-entry, by or under any summary dispossession or other proceeding or action or any provision of law by reason of default hereunder on the part of Tenant, Landlord shall be entitled to retain all moneys, if any, paid by Tenant to Landlord, whether as advance rent, security or otherwise, but such moneys shall be credited by Landlord against any fixed rent or additional rent due from Tenant at the time of such termination or re-entry or, at Landlord's option, against any damages payable by Tenant under Article 32 or pursuant to law.

DAMAGES

(A) If this Lease is terminated under the provisions of Article 30, or if Landlord shall re-enter the Demised Premises under the provisions of Article 31, or in the event of the termination of this Lease, or of re-entry, by or under any summary dispossession or other proceeding or action or any provision of law by reason of default hereunder on the part of Tenant, Tenant shall pay to Landlord as damages, at the election of Landlord either:

(a) a sum which at the time of such termination of this Lease or at the time of any such re-entry by Landlord, as the case may be, represents the then value of the excess, if any, of:

(1) the aggregate of the fixed rent and the additional rent payable hereunder which would have been payable by Tenant (conclusively presuming the additional rent to be the same as was payable for the year immediately preceding such termination) for the period commencing with such earlier termination of this Lease or the date of any such re-entry, as the case may be, and ending with the Expiration Date, had this Lease not so terminated or had Landlord not so re-entered the Demised Premises; over

(2) the aggregate rental value of the Demised Premises for the same period; or

(b) sums equal to the fixed rent and the additional rent (as above presumed) payable hereunder which would have been payable by Tenant had this Lease not so terminated, or had Landlord not so re-entered the Demised Premises, payable upon the due dates therefor specified herein following such termination or such re-entry and until the Expiration Date, provided, however, that if Landlord shall relet the Demised Premises during said period,

Landlord shall credit Tenant with the net rents received by Landlord from such reletting, such net rents to be determined by first deducting from the gross rents as and when received by Landlord from such reletting the expenses incurred or paid by Landlord in terminating this Lease or in re-entering the Demised Premises and in securing possession thereof, as well as the expenses of reletting, including altering and preparing the Demised Premises for new tenants, brokers' commissions, and all other expenses properly chargeable against the Demised Premises and the rental therefrom; it being understood that any such reletting may be for a period shorter or longer than the remaining term of this Lease; but in no event shall Tenant be entitled to receive any excess of such net rents over the sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, nor shall Tenant be entitled in any suit for the collection of damages pursuant to this Subsection to a credit in respect of any net rents from a reletting, except to the extent that such net rents are actually received by Landlord. If the Demised Premises or any part thereof should be relet in combination with other space, then proper apportionment on a square foot basis (for equivalent space) shall be made of the rent received from such reletting and of the expenses of reletting. If the Demised Premises or any part thereof be relet by Landlord for the unexpired portion of the term of this Lease, or any part thereof, before presentation of proof of such damages to any court, commission or tribunal, the amount of rent reserved upon such reletting shall, prima facie, be the fair and reasonable rental value for the Demised Premises, or part thereof, so relet during the term of the reletting.

(B) Suit or suits for the recovery of such damages, or any installments thereof, may be brought by Landlord from time to time at its election, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to require Landlord to postpone suit until the date when the term of this Lease would have expired if it had not been so terminated under the provisions of Article 30, or under any provision of law, or had Landlord not re-entered the Demised Premises. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or preclude recovery by Landlord against Tenant of any sums or damages to which, in addition to the damages particularly provided above, Landlord may lawfully be entitled by reason of any default hereunder on the part of Tenant. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or prejudice the right of Landlord to prove for and obtain as liquidated damages by reason of the termination of this Lease or re-entry on the Demised Premises for the default of Tenant under this Lease, an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any statute or rule of law in effect at the time when, and governing the proceedings in which, such damages are to be proved whether or not such amount be greater, equal to, or less than any of the sums referred to in Paragraph (A).

(C) Nothing contained in this Article shall be deemed to limit Tenant's rights under Article 3 of this Lease.

MISCELLANEOUS

(A) If any governmental license or permit, other than a Certificate of Occupancy or certificate (final or partial) of substantial completion of the Port Authority, shall be required for the proper and lawful conduct of Tenant's business in the Demised Premises, or any part thereof, and if failure to secure such license or permit would in any way affect Landlord, Tenant, at its expense, shall duly procure and thereafter maintain such license or permit and submit the same for inspection by Landlord. Tenant shall at all times comply with the terms and conditions of each such license or permit.

(B) Tenant shall not at any time use or occupy, or suffer or permit anyone to use or occupy, the Demised Premises, or do or permit anything to be done in the Demised Premises, in violation of the Certificate of Occupancy or certificate (final or partial) of substantial completion of the Port Authority, for the Demised Premises or for the Building.

(C) Tenant shall not (a) use or permit the Demised Premises or any portion thereof to be used for retail store purposes or for the sale, preparation or serving of food or beverages, (b) install vending machines dispensing food, beverages or other merchandise in the Demised Premises, ~~(c)~~ install pay or coin-operated telephones in the Demised Premises, (d) sell or license the sale of lottery tickets or similar chances or devices nor conduct or license the conducting of off-track or other wagering operations or activities at or from the Demised Premises, (e) erect, maintain or display any signs, lettering, advertising, posters, displays or similar devices in the Demised Premises and (f) use or make any reference by advertising or otherwise to the names "World Trade Center", "The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey", "The Port Authority" or any simulation or abbreviation of any such names or any emblem, picture or reproduction of the World Trade Center. No souvenir or souvenir-type merchandise, whether involving the World Trade Center or other Port Authority facilities (or depicting any aspect thereof) or bearing or carrying the World Trade Center legend or reproduction thereof shall be sold or displayed at or from the Demised Premises. Nothing contained in this Paragraph shall preclude Tenant from having a warming pantry as shown on Tenant's approved Plans, provided that such facility shall be for the service of food to Tenant, its employees and business guests (but not for use as a public restaurant) , and Tenant shall comply with all applicable laws with respect thereto.

(D) Tenant shall not suffer or permit the use of any portion of the Demised Premises (a) for use by a foreign or, other than Tenant named herein, domestic governmental office, agency, bureau or other governmental instrumentality, (b) for use by or as a school, travel agency, medical or dental office or an employment, placement or executive recruitment agency, or (c) for use by a banking or other lending institution or office, agency, business or other governmental instrumentality engaged in business or dealing with the general public on an "off the street" basis.

(E) Each party agrees, at any time and from time to time, as requested by the other party, upon not less than ten (10) days' prior notice, to execute and deliver to the other a statement certifying (a) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications) and whether any options granted to Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Lease have been exercised, (b) certifying the dates to which the fixed rent and additional rent have been paid and the amounts thereof, and stating whether or not, to the best knowledge of the signer, the other party is in default in performance of any of its obligations under this Lease, and, if so, specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant hereto may be relied upon by others with whom the party requesting such certificate may be dealing. Additionally, Tenant's statement shall contain such other information as shall be required by the holder or proposed holder of any superior mortgage or the lessor or proposed lessor under any superior lease.

(F) Wherever in this Lease Landlord's consent or approval is required, if Landlord shall refuse such consent or approval, Tenant in no event shall be entitled to make, nor shall Tenant make, any claim,, and Tenant hereby waives any claim for money damages (nor shall Tenant claim any money damages by way of set-off, counterclaim or defense) based upon any claim or assertion by Tenant that Landlord unreasonably withheld or unreasonably delayed its consent or approval. Tenant's sole remedy shall be an action or proceeding to enforce any such provision, for specific performance, injunction or declaratory judgment.

(G) The obligations of this Lease shall bind and benefit the successors and assigns of the parties hereto (~~herein sometimes referred to as the "parties"~~) with the same effect as if mentioned in each instance where a party is named or referred to, except that no violation of the provisions of Article 20 shall operate to vest any rights in any successor or assignee of Tenant and that the provisions of this Article shall not be construed as modifying the conditions of limitation contained in Article 30. However, the obligations of Landlord under this Lease shall not be binding upon Landlord herein named with respect to any period subsequent to the transfer of its interest in the Building and/or Real Property as owner or lessee thereof and in event of such transfer said obligations shall thereafter be binding upon each transferee of the interest of Landlord herein named as such owner or lessee of the Building and/or Real Property, but only with respect to the period ending with a subsequent transfer within the meaning of this Section.

(H) If Landlord shall be an individual, joint venture, tenancy in common, co-partnership, unincorporated association, or other unincorporated aggregate of individuals and/or entities or a corporation, Tenant shall look only to such Landlord's estate and property in the Building (or the net proceeds thereof) and, where expressly so provided in this Lease, to offset against the rents payable under this Lease, for the satisfaction of Tenant's remedies for the collection of a judgment (or other judicial process) requiring the payment of money by Landlord in the event of any default by Landlord hereunder, and no other property or assets of such Landlord or any partner, member, officer or director thereof, disclosed or undisclosed, shall be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedure for the satisfaction of Tenant's remedies under or with respect to this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant hereunder or Tenant's use or occupancy of the Demised Premises.

(I) Tenant shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Materials (hereinafter defined) to be used, stored, transported, released, handled, produced or installed in, on or from the Demised Premises or the Building. "Hazardous Materials", as used herein, shall mean any flammables, explosives, radioactive materials, hazardous wastes, hazardous and toxic substances or related materials, asbestos or any material containing asbestos, or any other substance or material included in the definition of "hazardous substances", "hazardous wastes", hazardous materials", "toxic substances", "contaminants" or any other pollutant, or otherwise regulated by any Federal, state or local environmental law, ordinance, rule or regulation including, without limitation, the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, as amended, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, as amended, and in the regulations adopted and publications promulgated pursuant to each of the foregoing. In the event of a violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this Section, Landlord may, without notice and without regard to any grace period contained herein, take all remedial action reasonably deemed necessary by Landlord to correct such condition and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost thereof, within ten (10) days after demand therefor, as additional rent. The provisions of this Section shall not prohibit Tenant from maintaining customary and normal office equipment and supplies used in its business to the extent the same are of a nature and in amounts which are incidental and customarily present at first class office buildings in Manhattan and provided such items are permitted and safeguarded as required by law and insurance bodies.

(J) Landlord represents that, to the best of its knowledge, no Hazardous Materials (as said term is defined on the date hereof) are currently present in the Building, and Landlord agrees not to cause or permit any Hazardous Materials to be used, stored, transported, released, handled, produced or installed in, on or from the Demised Premises or the Building.

(K) If the fixed rent or any additional rent shall be or become uncollectible by virtue of any law, governmental order or regulation, or direction of any public officer or body, Tenant shall enter into such agreement or agreements and take such other action (without additional expense to Tenant) as Landlord may request, as may be legally permissible, to permit Landlord to collect the maximum fixed rent and additional rent which may, from time to time during the continuance of such legal rent restriction be legally permissible, but not in excess of the amounts of fixed rent or additional rent payable under this Lease. Upon the termination of such legal rent restriction, (a) the fixed rent and additional rent, after such termination, shall become payable under this Lease in the amount of the fixed rent and additional rent set forth in this Lease for the period following such termination, and (b) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, if legally permissible, an amount equal to (i) the fixed rent and additional rent which would have been paid pursuant to this Lease, but for such rent restriction, less (ii) the fixed rent and additional rent paid by Tenant to Landlord during the period that such rent restriction was in effect.

(L) Landlord reserves the right to exclude from all portions of the Building (other than specified areas of the ground floor) all messengers, couriers and delivery people other than those who are employees of a tenant in the Building. In such event Landlord shall accept on behalf of Tenant all deliveries of mail, air courier packages, express packages and other packages sent by similar means (including any hand deliveries of such mail and packages), shall permit messengers and couriers to pick up mail or packages left by Tenant and shall provide an area to be used for such purposes to which Tenant's employees shall deliver mail and packages to be picked up by others and from which such employees shall pick up and distribute mail and packages to be delivered to Tenant; provided, however, that Landlord may elect to provide such distribution to Tenant at Tenant's expense. Tenant shall comply with Landlord's rules relating to such area and services. Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents or security personnel shall be liable to Tenant or Tenant's agents, employees, contractors, customers, clients, invitees or licensees or to any other person for, and Tenant hereby indemnifies Landlord and Landlord's agents and security personnel, against liability in connection with or arising out of damage to mail or packages, or the performance or non-performance by Landlord or any person acting by, through or under the direction of Landlord of the services set forth in this Section (L) (including any liability in respect of the property of such persons), unless due to the willful misconduct of Landlord, or Landlord's agents or security personnel. No representation, guaranty or warranty is made or assurance given that the communications or security systems, devices or procedures of the Building will be effective to prevent injury to Tenant or any other person or damage to, or loss (by theft or otherwise) of, any property of Tenant (including Tenant's property) or of any other person, and Landlord reserves the right to discontinue or modify at any time such communications or security systems or procedures without liability to Tenant.

(M) Tenant shall not commit any nuisance on the Demised Premises, or do or permit to be done anything which might result in the creation or commission of a nuisance on the Demised Premises, and Tenant shall not cause or permit to be caused or produced upon the Demised Premises, to permeate the same or to emanate therefrom, any unusual, noxious or objectionable smoke, gases, vapor, odors, noises or vibrations.

(N) If as a result of (a) Landlord's failure to make repairs required to be performed by Landlord in or to any portion of the Demised Premises or the Building; or (b) Landlord's breach of its obligations to supply any essential service which pursuant to the terms of this Lease Landlord is obligated to supply in or about the Demised Premises (collectively "Untenantable Condition") and such Untenantable Condition shall not be caused by any circumstances referred to in Articles 14, 15 or 22 (subject to the penultimate sentence of this Paragraph N or by any act or omission of Tenant or its officers, contractors, ~~licensee~~ licensees, agents, employees, guests or visitors, or any utility company or required by any legal requirement, and as a result of the Untenantable Condition, (i) all or a material portion of the Demised Premises (the "Untenantable Premises") are untenable (it being agreed that a material portion of Demised premises shall be deemed untenable if more than forty percent (40%) of the Demised Premises is rendered untenable), for a period in excess of ten (10) consecutive days in any one instance (commencing after written notice from Tenant to Landlord of the Untenantable Condition if provided for herein in clause (iii) below or commencing upon the occurrence of the Untenantable Condition if written notice is not provided for in clause (iii) below), (ii) Tenant shall vacate the Untenantable Premises and cease doing business therein and (iii) Tenant shall give notice to Landlord of the facts set forth in (i) and (ii) above, making specific reference to this rent abatement provision if outside the Demised Premises no other tenant is then subject to a similar act, event or circumstance as the Untenantable Condition, but if any other tenant is so affected, no such notice by Tenant shall be required hereby, then in such event, the portion of the Rents allocable to the Untenantable Premises shall be fully abated for the period commencing on the eleventh (11th) consecutive day after all the conditions set forth in (i), (ii) and (iii) above shall first be satisfied and ending on the date the Untenantable Premises shall be rendered usable and Landlord shall have given notice thereof (or the date Tenant shall re-occupy the Untenantable Premises for conduct of its business, if earlier). In the event an Untenantable Condition shall result from circumstance referred to in Article 22, the reference to "ten (10) consecutive days" and the "eleventh (11th) consecutive day" shall be charged to "twenty (20) consecutive days" and the "twenty-first (21st) day." This subsection N shall be in lieu of any right to which Tenant is otherwise entitled by law to claim a constructive eviction by reason of Landlord's failure to make such repairs, or supply such essential services.

TENANT'S ANTENNA

Landlord agrees that, subject to all laws, ordinances, statutes, rules and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof, and further subject to the conditions and limitations hereinafter stipulated, Tenant shall, during the term of this Lease, have the right (hereinafter called the "Antenna Option") to install on a portion of the rooftop of the Building and thereafter maintain, repair, and operate communications equipment (which may consist of one (1) or more dishes or antennae) installed in an area not exceeding two (2) square feet in area (hereinafter referred to as the "Communications Dish"), which Communications Dish is intended to receive and/or send signals on the roof of the Building as an incident to the conduct of Tenant's business in the Demised Premises, provided and on condition that: (i) at the time that Tenant shall exercise the Antenna Option, there shall be available on the roof a location appropriate, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, for the Communications Dish, which shall not then be encumbered by any option or right given by Landlord to any other tenant or occupant of the Building or any others to use or occupy such space, and which is not intended for the installation of any equipment, such as a cooling tower or generator, by Landlord, and which would not, after the installation of the Communications Dish, interfere with the installation, operation or maintenance of any other antenna, dishes or equipment theretofore installed on thereof of the Building (such location is hereinafter called the "Antenna Area"), it being understood and agreed that if, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, no such appropriate location exists, then Landlord shall give Tenant notice of the next availability of Antenna Area, and Tenant shall have the right to thereafter install a Communications Dish in accordance with the provisions hereof; (ii) the size and dimensions of the Communications Dish and any reasonably required support structures as well as the location of the portion of the rooftop for such installation shall be subject to Landlord's prior consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; (iii) no such equipment shall extend higher than the parapet of the roof of the Building; (iv) the Communications shall be placed within the Antenna Area; (v) the installation and position of such Communications Dish and required support structures shall comply with the laws and requirements of any public authorities; (vi) the installation of any electrical or communications lines ("Wiring") in connection with the installation and operation of the Communications Dish, as well as the manner and location (i.e., routing) of all Wiring in connection therewith shall (A) be at Tenant's sole cost and expense, (B) be subject to Landlord's prior consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and (C) comply with the laws and requirements of any public authorities; (vii) the Communications Dish; reasonably required support structures, and Wiring shall be maintained and kept in good repair by Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense; and (viii) Tenant shall not install the Communications Dish without Landlord's prior approval of (A) the manner of such installation and (B) detailed plans and specifications for such installation, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The parties agreed that Tenant's use of the rooftop of the Building is a nonexclusive use and Landlord may permit the use of any other portion of the roof to any other person, firm or corporation for any use including, without limitation, the installation of other communications dish and support equipment.

(B) Tenant shall exercise the Antenna Option by giving Landlord written notice thereof (hereinafter called "Tenant's Option Notice") at any time during the term of this Lease. Such notice shall include specifications for the Communications Dish and the proposed manner of mounting same in the Antenna Area. Landlord shall reasonably promptly thereafter give Tenant notice whether or not an Antenna Area exists for the Communications Dish. In the event that such Antenna Area is available for Tenant, or when such Antenna next becomes available, then the following provisions of this Article 35 shall apply.

---> (C is open for discussion) [There shall be no Base Rent payable by Tenant in connection with the exercise by Tenant of the Antenna Option.]

(D) For the purpose of installing, servicing or repairing the Communications Dish and related equipment, Tenant shall have access to the rooftop of the Building upon prior reasonable request of Landlord. All access by Tenant to the roof of the Building shall be subject to the supervision and control of Landlord and to Landlord's reasonable safeguards for the security and protection of the Building, the Building equipment and installations and equipment of other tenants of the Building as may be located on the roof of the Building. Landlord shall have the right to assign an Building representative to be present during the duration of Tenant's access to the rooftop and Tenant shall pay the Landlord's customary charges therefor as additional rent.

(E) Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, agrees to promptly and faithfully obey, observe and comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, requirements and rules of all duly constituted public authorities (including the Port Authority) in any manner affecting or relating to Tenant's use of said roof as to the installation, repair, maintenance and operation of any support structures and Communications Dish erected or installed by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35. Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall secure and thereafter maintain all permits and licenses required for the installation and operations of the Communications Dish and any support structures erected or installed by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35, including, without limitation, any approval, license or permit required from the Federal Communications Commission. In no event shall the maximum level of microwave emissions from the Communications Dish exceed an amount equal to Tenant's proportionate share of the total microwave emissions allowable for the Building as determined by the Governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof.

(F) Tenant agrees that Tenant shall pay for all electrical service required for Tenant's use of the Communications Dish and related equipment erected or installed by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35 in accordance with Article 10 of this Lease and Tenant further agrees that such electric service shall feed off the supply of electrical energy furnished to the Demised Premises or by other available means of Landlord as provided in Article 10 of this Lease.

(G) The Communications Dish and support structures installed by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35 shall be Tenant's personal property, and, upon the expiration or earlier of the Term of this Lease, or earlier, shall be removed by Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense. All Wiring and related electrical equipment installed by Tenant in connection with the installation and operation of the Communications Dish shall be Tenant's personal property. Upon the expiration of the Term of this Lease or upon its earlier termination in any manner, if Landlord so directs by written notice to Tenant, Tenant shall promptly remove the Wiring and electrical equipment as designated in such notice, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall promptly repair any and all damage to the rooftop of the Building and to any other part of the Building caused by or resulting from the installation, maintenance and repair, operation or removal of the Communications Dish, support structures and Wiring erected or installed by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35 and restore said affected areas to their condition as existed prior to the installation of the Communications Dish.

(H) Tenant agrees that Landlord shall not be required to provide any services whatsoever to the rooftop of the Building.

(I) Tenant covenants and agrees that all installations made by Tenant on the rooftop of the Building or in any other part of the Building pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35 shall be at the sole risk of Tenant, and neither Landlord nor Landlord's agent or employees shall be liable for any damage or injury thereto caused in any manner, unless the same shall proximately result from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, its agents and employees.

(J) Tenant will, and does hereby, indemnify and save harmless Landlord from and against: (i) any and all claims, counsel fees, demands, damages, expenses or losses by reason or any liens, orders, claims or charges resulting from any work done, or materials or supplies furnished, in connection with the fabrication, erection, installation, maintenance and operation of the Communications Dish, support structures, Wiring and any related equipment permitted to be installed by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35; and (ii) any and all claims, costs, demands, expenses, fees or suits arising out of accidents, damage, injury or loss to any and all persons and property, or either, whomsoever or whatsoever resulting from or arising in connection with the erection, installation, maintenance and operation and repair of the Communications Dish, support structures, Wiring and related equipment installed by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35; except to the extent caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, or its agent or employees. Excluding Tenant named herein, Tenant shall obtain and thereafter maintain during the Term of this Lease insurance coverage for the benefit of Landlord in such amount and of such type as Landlord may reasonably require.

(K) All plans and specifications of Tenant's work and installations to be done and made by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 35 shall be subject to the prior approval of Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and shall be further subject to inspection and reasonable supervision by Landlord.

(L) Tenant covenants and agrees that the Communications Dish, support structures, Wiring and related electrical equipment to be installed by Tenant shall not interfere with or adversely affect any equipment, installations, lines or machinery of the Building or any other tenant of the Building, including, without limitation, any other pre-existing communications equipment in, on top of or otherwise outside the Building, or access thereto for maintenance, repair or removal.

(M) Tenant acknowledges being advised by Landlord that Landlord has, and shall be, granting to third parties various rights and licenses to utilize various portions of the Building and rooftop thereof for the installation of microwave dishes, satellite communications equipment, whip communications dishes and other communications equipment and related equipment (hereinafter all of the foregoing are collectively referred to as "Other Communications Equipment") and that, inasmuch as Landlord's ability to facilitate the installation and operation of such Other Communications Equipment will be of paramount importance to Landlord, Landlord shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, during the term of this Lease, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Tenant, to relocate the Tenant's Communications Dish, support structures and related equipment to other areas of the Building and rooftop thereof, as Landlord in its sole discretion may determine so as to accommodate such Other Communications Equipment on the roof of the Building and so as to eliminate, or not to create, problems of interference with respect to or between Other Communications Equipment now, or in the future, installed on the roof or other areas of the Building. Such relocation shall, to the extent practicable, be performed during hours other than Tenant's regular business hours so as to minimize any disruption of Tenant's normal business activities and except for such downtime such relocation shall not prevent Tenant from using its Communications Dish for its original intended purpose. Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord to effectuate the relocation of Tenant's Communications Dish, support structures and related equipment, as shall be required by Landlord. All costs involved in such relocation shall be borne by Landlord,

(N) Tenant shall not be permitted to assign or transfer all or any portion of the rights granted to Tenant pursuant to this Article 35 unless Tenant assigns this Lease to the party to whom such rights are assigned or transferred,
